

Employment-Focused Services Grants

The following agencies and non-profit organizations will share $6.4 million in funding to provide employment-focused services to parolees, probationers and individuals participating in court-ordered programs.

Three of the 13 grant recipients – Center For Employment Opportunities (CEO), EAC Network, and The Osborne Association – operate programs in more than one county. As a result, they are listed multiple times:

New York City

- The Fortune Society: $1,136,568 to serve individuals on parole.
- The Osborne Association: funding for two programs totaling $500,000 to serve individuals on parole and probation.
- New York City Department of Probation: $396,360 serving individuals on probation.
- EAC Network: $397,200 to serve individuals participating in court-referred programs and those on probation.
- Center for Alternative Sentencing and Employment Services (CASES): $332,468 to serve individuals participating in court-referred programs and those on probation.
- Women's Prison Association and Home, Inc.: $202,101 to serve women participating in court-referred programs and those on probation.

Long Island

- EAC Network (Nassau County): $198,600 to serve individuals participating in court-referred programs and those on probation.

Mid-Hudson Region

- Project MORE Inc. (Dutchess County): $364,400 to serve individuals participating in court-referred programs and those on probation.
- The Osborne Association (Orange County): $250,000 to serve individuals on parole.
- Rockland Independent Living Center: funding for two programs totaling $228,601 to serve individuals on parole, probation and those participating in court-referred programs.

Capital Region

- Center For Employment Opportunities (CEO/Albany County): $304,750 to serve individuals on parole.

Central New York

- Challenge Industries Inc.: (Tompkins County): $141,473 to serve individuals on parole.

Finger Lakes

- Center For Employment Opportunities (CEO/Monroe County): $732,400 to serve individuals on parole.
- Wayne ARC (Ontario, Steuben and Wayne counties): funding for two programs totaling $143,344 to serve individuals on parole, probation and those participating in court-referred programs.

Western New York

- Chautauqua County Probation Department: $197,164 to serve individuals on probation and court referred.
- Niagara County Probation Department: $187,864 to serve individuals on probation and in court-referred programs.
- PathStone Corporation (Monroe, Orleans, Niagara and Ontario counties): $341,000 to serve individuals participating in court-referred programs and those on probation.
- Center For Employment Opportunities (CEO/Erie County): $366,000 to serve individuals on parole.

Re-Entry Task Force Grants

Approximately $4 million will be used to create a new task force in Queens County and allow 19 existing task forces to serve additional people. The grants were awarded to non-profit organizations or counties and/or specific county agencies, which in turn partner with non-profit organizations. Some of these grant recipients also received awards for employment-focused services.

New York City

- Bronx County, which partners with EAC Inc.: $276,400.
- Kings County District Attorney's Office: $248,250.
- New York County, which partners with the Center for Court Innovation and Fund for the City of New York: $200,000.
- Queens County, which partners with Fortune Society: $199,850.

Long Island

- Nassau County Probation Department,: $212,850.
- Suffolk County Probation Department: $363,840.

Mid-Hudson

- Exodus Transitional Community, Inc. (Dutchess County): $122,700.
- Orange County Department of Social Services, working with RECAP, Inc.: $150,100.

- Rockland County District Attorney's Office, working with Rockland Independent Living Center: $108,950.
- Family of Woodstock, Inc. (Ulster County): $100,000.
- Westchester County District Attorney's Office: $139,680.

Capital Region

- Albany County Department of Mental Health: $233,400.
- Rensselaer County District Attorney's Office: $117,400.
- Center for Community Justice, Inc. (Schenectady County): $138,600.

Central New York

- Workforce Investment Board (Oneida County): $144,400.
- Onondaga County District Attorney's Office: $335,500.

Southern Tier

- Broome County Department of Mental Health: $132,200.

Finger Lakes

- Monroe County Probation Department, working with DELPHI: $353,280.

Western New York

- Erie County Department of Mental Health, working with Spectrum Human Services: $367,680.
- Niagara County Probation Department, which partners with Community Missions: $117,500.