

INVESTING A RECORD $25.8 BILLION IN EDUCATION

New York State continues progress in the strengthening of educational outcomes and increasing access to high-quality learning for all students. The FY 2018 Budget increases Education Aid by $1.1 billion, including a $700 million increase in Foundation Aid, bringing the new Education Aid total to $25.8 billion or an increase of 4.4 percent. Under Governor Cuomo, School Aid has increased $6.2 billion or 32 percent over six years.

Capital Region

New York State continues progress in the strengthening of educational outcomes and increasing access to high-quality learning for all students. The FY 2018 Budget increases School Aid in the Capital Region by $55.3 million, including a $34.2 million increase in Foundation Aid.

Central New York

New York State continues progress in the strengthening of educational outcomes and increasing access to high-quality learning for all students. The FY 2018 Budget increases School Aid in Central New York by $48.0 million, including a $31.6 million increase in Foundation Aid.

Finger Lakes

New York State continues progress in the strengthening of educational outcomes and increasing access to high-quality learning for all students. The FY 2018 Budget increases School Aid in the Finger Lakes by $60.2 million, including a $41.0 million increase in Foundation Aid.

Long Island

New York State continues progress in the strengthening of educational outcomes and increasing access to high-quality learning for all students. The FY 2018 Budget increases School Aid in Long Island by $129.0 million, including a $78.9 million increase in Foundation Aid.

Mid-Hudson

New York State continues progress in the strengthening of educational outcomes and increasing access to high-quality learning for all students. The FY 2018 Budget increases School Aid in the Mid-Hudson region by $104.1 million, including a $61.9 million increase in Foundation Aid.

Mohawk Valley

New York State continues progress in the strengthening of educational outcomes and increasing access to high-quality learning for all students. The FY 2018 Budget increases School Aid in the Mohawk Valley by $40.2 million, including a $24.0 million increase in Foundation Aid.

New York City

New York State continues progress in the strengthening of educational outcomes and increasing access to high-quality learning for all students. The FY 2018 Budget increases School Aid in New York City by $386.8 million, including a $336.8 million increase in Foundation Aid.

North Country

New York State continues progress in the strengthening of educational outcomes and increasing access to high-quality learning for all students. The FY 2018 Budget increases School Aid in the North Country by $37.2 million, including a $17.9 million increase in Foundation Aid.

Southern Tier

New York State continues progress in the strengthening of educational outcomes and increasing access to high-quality learning for all students. The FY 2018 Budget increases School Aid in the Southern Tier by $43.6 million, including a $23.6 million increase in Foundation Aid.

Western New York

New York State continues progress in the strengthening of educational outcomes and increasing access to high-quality learning for all students. The FY 2018 Budget increases School Aid in Western New York by $90.8 million, including a $50.1 million increase in Foundation Aid.